Publisher's Corner

Spring and summer are my favorite times of the year in South Florida. I know, many of us have moved here for the secret thrill of calling relatives shoveling show, and regaling them of a stroll along the beach. But time slows a little for those of us who dwell year round in paradise. It's always a smidgen more "our town" as the tourists diminish a bit, and the locals, get a chance to lounge... enjoy.
